TWENTY MEN IN SQUAD

Coach Roberts' Gymnasts Propose to Give Visitors Contest of Their Lives.

Oscar B. Gingrich, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., will take a strong team of gymnasts to Provo, March 2, when the meet with the Brigham Young university will be held. Twenty men will comprise the team from the association, among whom will be a number of athletes who took part in the annual show last year. Every indication points to a successful meet. Coach Eugene L. Roberts of Provo says that he will have a large squad of men on hand to give the visitors the contest of their lives.

Crabbe, Macke, Mortensen, Niblo and Deane will be taken to the Garden City, where they will be given an opportunity of testing their wrestling powers against some of the husky boys in that locality. An exhibition of gymnastic dancing, a new idea in physical training, will be featured in the programme. Officials of the meet will be chosen at a special meeting to be held within two weeks.

NOT SO MANY FROWNS FOR THE BOXING GAME

BOSTON, Feb. 11.—Any live man who thinks with what the Lord gave him to think can hear the rumblings of a wave of betterment for the boxing game, if he will but put one ear to the ground. For years the fistie sport has been considered the pastime of the rough-neck element, and as such has been a shining mark for every reformer who couldn't think of any other way to break into print.

But have you noticed that this is passing away? The reformers have learned that their efforts to malign the sport of red-blooded men which they knew nothing about has failed to get them anything, and they are letting it alone.

It is not an infrequent thing to hear clergymen—both Catholic and Protestant—say a good word for the many art of self-defense, and the preaching of a sermon against boxing is now such an unusual thing that it is largely as an effort to attract attention.

One of the recent signs of the times is the proposition made by the athletic committee of the University of Pennsylvania to a number of other universities and colleges looking to the formation of a boxing league. A few years past the mere suggestion of this would have met with howls of disapproval. The scheme may not go through, but at least it is being given serious consideration where a few years ago it would have died a sudden and spectacular death.

And why shouldn't such a proposition go through? The man who knows nothing about boxing will say that it is a brutal sport. Yet the same individual will revel in a slashing football game where the chances of injury and the number of injuries are in much greater proportion. This is not intended as a reflection on the gridiron game, for as long as men and boys with red muscles in their blood engage in sport there will be danger of injury and there will be injuries.

William Warren Barbour, a young New Yorker whose station in life happens to be that of a millionaire's son, is the national amateur heavyweight champion boxer. He is a clean living, shrewd young business man who has no intention of ever being a professional pugilist. In discussing the fistie game a few days ago he said:

"Boxing is an unfortunate sport. A man can become an expert at tennis or golf, and a certain social distinction attaches, but let him take up boxing, a sport that is fully as clean and manly, and better for the health, and society frowns."

"There could be no pink tea attachment to boxing and perhaps that is the reason it is in social disfavor, but no sport in the world carries with it the effective and splendid training that is necessary in becoming a good boxer."

This from a man who stands high in business and social circles and who has been boxing for the past four years, is worth thinking over.

Team Which Plays the Salt Lake High Quint

SPEEDY HAMILTONS.

The Salt Lake high school basketball team, which has a clean record so far this season, will try conclusions with the champion high school team of the United States Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. The crack Hamilton high school team, from Portland, Ore., has won a Pacific coast tour. The champs have played forty games and have lost but six. One of the best games the team has won was against the champion Portland team, which defeated the Hangers here Thursday night. The two Rivers players are all huskies. They average 175 pounds in weight and six feet two inches in height.

Advance Manager R. G. Suettinger was in the city Saturday afternoon and arranged for Monday night's game with the Salt Lake high school. Manager Suettinger also signed a contract with Hanger's team for a game to be played either Friday or Saturday night at the Armory.

The two Rivers team played at Le Grand, Ore., Saturday night. Following Monday night's game the team will play three of the high school teams in Salt Lake and Utah counties.

RETAIL CLERKS TO HAVE FAST TEAM

C. R. Grimmett, president of the Retail Clerks club in the Commercial league, said Saturday night that practically every detail connected with the placing of a fast team in the field had been worked out and that such men as Matt and Farrell Gallagher, Lees, Fitzgerald, Fitzpatrick, Johnson, Sowdski, Aubrey, Johnson and Wilkerson had been signed for the coming season.

According to Mr. Grimmett, a meeting is to be held Saturday night when further plans for the 1911 season will be discussed and a captain and manager chosen.

Seattle Club Sold.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 18.—A deal has been closed for the purchase of the Seattle club of the Northwestern baseball league by First Base manager Ruggie of the Pittsburgh National league team. President D. E. Dugdale, who announced the closing of the transaction tonight, said that he was not at liberty to state the purchase price.

TRYING TO GET MATCH.

An effort is being made to bring the Crawford-Yokel match to Salt Lake. Willard Bean, acting for Promoter Harry Hengerson Saturday night wired to Crawford's manager at Bakersfield, Cal., that $1000 had been hung up here for the match, all of the money to go to the winner of the event or the purse to be divided between the wrestlers. The match is billed for Bakersfield, March 3.

JIMMY BRIM FULL OF CONFIDENCE

me for a Porgint, but I'm Irish and proud of it."

"What do you think about Rivers?" he was asked.

"He turned over on the 'rubbing board, and looking his interrogator squarely in the eye, said with considerable feeling and spirit:

"I'm going to get that fellow Rivers and get him good. I can hardly wait for the going to place. I never felt so confident of winning a match in all my life. I don't know much about Rivers and don't care, but I'm going to win, and that's all there is to it. I think my own record shows that I can hold my own with the best of them. To show how I feel about it, I have accepted a match in Salt Lake for next month solely on condition that I win over Rivers. After my Salt Lake match I'm going after Conley, and then Abe Attell will be next. I don't want the fight fans to think I'm well-headed and sensible on stuff when I talk this way, for it's just the way I feel."

He's Twenty-three.

Reagan is 23 years old and has been mixing in roped arena contests for four years. He is a clean-cut chap and very popular with the fight fans and scribes in the Bay City.

When informed that Rivers was a 10 to 7 favorite in the coming match, Reagan said: "I don't care if he is a 10 to 1 shot. I'm going to win."

Reagan is a typical bare-knuckle fighter, always willing to take a punch and ready for more. He is very aggressive and reminds one considerably of Battling Nelson when in action.

Mike Moran is preparing for his coming fifteen-round match with Len Lander at the East Side quarters. He appears to be in fine condition. Lander is working out at Doyle's with Jimmy Austin, who is scheduled to meet "Battling Chico" for the paperweight championship of the coast the same time.

When Rivers was informed yesterday afternoon that Reagan was brimful of confidence, he slowly replied: "All I have to say is that I'm training faithfully for the fight and expect to give the fans a run for their money. Reagan is a good boy and it will be a good scrap, but I have no doubts about the result."

Reagan and Rivers will weigh in at 10 o'clock the morning of February 22.
